

MAJORITY VOTING POLICY

The board of directors (the “Board”) of Carbon Streaming Corporation (the “Corporation”) believes that each of its members should carry the confidence and support of the Corporation’s shareholders. To this end, the Board has unanimously adopted this statement of policy.

In an uncontested election (as defined below) of directors of the Corporation, each director should be elected by the vote of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the shareholders meeting convened for such election of directors. Accordingly, if any nominee for the Board receives a greater number of votes “withheld” from his or her election than votes “for” such election, that director shall promptly tender his or her resignation to the chair of the Board following the meeting of shareholders at which the director was elected.

The Governance, Nominating and Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) shall consider any such offer of resignation and recommend to the Board whether or not to accept it. Any director who has tendered his or her resignation shall not attend the deliberations of either the Committee or the Board at which his or her resignation is considered. In its deliberations, the Committee shall accept the resignation, absent exceptional circumstances (such as the effect such resignation may have on the Corporation’s ability to comply with applicable corporate or securities law requirements, applicable regulations, corporate governance rules or policies or commercial agreements regarding the composition).

The Board must promptly accept the resignation unless it determines, in consultation with the Committee, that there are exceptional circumstances that should delay the acceptance of the resignation or justify rejecting it. The Board shall, after considering the factors identified by the Committee, make its decision and announce such decision through a press release within 90 days following the applicable shareholders meeting. A copy of the press release shall be concurrently delivered to the Cboe Exchange or any other exchange on which the Corporation’s securities are traded, as applicable. If the Board declines to accept the resignation, it should fully state the reasons for its decision in the press release. The resignation of a director will be effective when accepted by the Board.

Forms of proxy provided for use at any shareholders meeting where directors are to be elected should enable the shareholders to vote in favour of, or to withhold from voting in respect of, each nominee separately. The results of the vote should be filed on SEDAR+.

Subject to any applicable corporate law restrictions or requirements and the articles of the Corporation, if a resignation is accepted, the Board may leave the resulting vacancy unfilled until the next annual general meeting of shareholders. Alternatively, it may fill the vacancy through the appointment of a new director whom the Board considers to merit the confidence of the shareholders, or it may call a special meeting of shareholders at which there will be presented a management nominee or nominees to fill the vacant position or positions.

In this policy, an “uncontested election” means an election of directors of the Corporation where: (i) the number of nominees for election as a director equals the number of directors to be elected. It shall not apply where an election involves a proxy battle (i.e., where proxy materials are circulated); (ii) a solicitation of proxies is carried out and/or other public communications are disseminated in support of one or more nominees who are not part of the director nominees supported by the Board; (iii) and/or public communications are disseminated against one or more nominees who are supported by the Board (including, without limitation, in situations where no alternative director nominees not supported by the Board have been nominated for election).

This policy is subject to change from time to time by the Board. No provision contained herein is intended to give rise to civil liability to shareholders of the Corporation or other liability whatsoever.

Dated: April 30, 2025

Approved by: Board of Directors of the Company